Speaking Effectively Norvelle Lee Raymond Smith

briefly noted - nca.tandfonline - eral education rather than on public speaking. the objectives of the original work are re-tained: emphasis on speech as a social process, primary consideration on methods of improving speech, and stress on the dependence of effective speech on the development of ideas. herman b wells - muse.jhu - professor lee norvelle, hired to teach public speaking and serve as debate coach in the 1920s, had an implacable desire to augment the . acting like a president 91 curricular offering in the dramatic arts and theater, but bryan, who in-sisted on censoring school plays, would not hear of it. 5 in 1935, alfred c.
